Philadelphia Auto Show to Host Best and Broadest Super Cars and Exotic Vehicles Displays in the Country

--Several of the world's rarest and fastest vehicles to be onsite, including Bugatti for the first-time ever--

East Norriton, Pa., Jan. 23, 2018 – The Philadelphia Auto Show parks at the Pennsylvania Convention Center from January 27-February 4. More than 700 vehicles will be onsite from 40 worldwide manufacturers. Of the many highlights this year, a guaranteed show-stopper, will be the enhanced Super Cars Display and the Exotic Vehicles Display.

“This is one of the top collections of Super Cars and Exotic Vehicles in the country,” said Ian Jeffery, chairman of the 2018 Philadelphia Auto Show. “Nowhere else can people experience this level of automotive beauty all under one roof. This is another perfect example of why we always say there’s nothing like the Auto Show.”

Courtesy of C.F. Charities, the Super Cars display at the 2018 Philadelphia Auto Show will host a Bugatti Chiron, Bugatti Veyron, Ford GT, Lamborghini Superleggera, Mosler Raptor GTR, SSC Ultimate Aero and Saleen S7. The Exotic Vehicles display, courtesy of Algar Ferrari, F.C. Kerbeck and McLaren Philadelphia, will feature dozens of the world’s most elegant vehicles. Samples include the latest editions of the Aston Martin DB11, Ferrari 488 Spider, McLaren 720S and Rolls-Royce Phantom, to name a few. ### About the ADAGP and Auto Dealers CARing for Kids Foundation

The Auto Dealers Association of Greater Philadelphia (ADAGP), established in 1904, is the oldest association of its kind in the nation. Comprised of 190 franchised new car and truck dealers throughout the five-county Philadelphia area, the Association owns and produces the Philadelphia Auto Show. The Auto Dealers CARing for Kids Foundation is the philanthropic arm of the ADAGP. It is a 501(c)(3) public charity that aims to enhance and enrich the lives of children in the communities where its dealer members work and live. Since its incorporation in 2003, the Foundation has contributed more than $10.9 million to area children’s charities and organizations.
